

March 1, 2023: Mark Puican, Founder and President,

1in7B Foundation

The mission of the 1in7B Foundation is to care for people like Jesus did through service by demonstrating unconditional love and bringing hope, joy and dignity with humble compassion to those experiencing homelessness. The Calvary boards of mission and trustees are newly announcing that Mark and his organization are a new ministry partner. Calvary will provide a site and resource for 1in7B's new mobile laundry and shower facility, a long-sought-after need among those experiencing homelessness. Come hear Mark's story and learn more about his organization and this new partnership.

March 8, 2023: Newark Branch NAACP (represent. TBA)

The mission of the NAACP is to achieve equity, political rights, and social inclusion by advancing policies and practices that expand human and civil rights, eliminate discrimination, and accelerate the well-being, education, and economic security of Black people and all persons of color. The Newark, DE branch is currently doing a membership drive, and they will come and share their history, their recent work in the area, and take your questions.

March 15, 2023: Eunice LaFate, local artist

Eunice Lafate is a Jamaican born self-taught artist whose art in acrylic, oil, and watercolors portrays folk culture and embraces human diversity with some distinct allusions to Christian doctrine and practice. Her work has been featured in the Calvary lobby during the month of February. She will come to tell more of her story and life's work.
